

My Day at Preschool Power

I'm going to a camp called Preschool Power. It's at Emerge.

I will go to Preschool Power on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays.

When I go in the door, my parents will write my name at the desk.

I can play in the waiting room before camp starts.

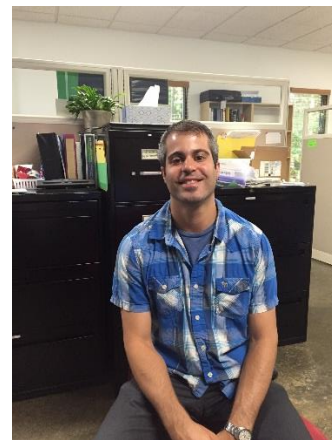

Other friends will be coming to Preschool Power to play, too!

My teachers will be

Kelly

and

Andrew

When Kelly and Andrew come out to get me, I'll walk with the other kids back to our room.

First we'll play on the butterfly rug...

And then we'll go to the gym.

We'll go over our schedule and do some activities in the gym.

My parents can watch through the window.

After we move in the gym, we'll come back and have circle time on the butterfly rug.

Then it's time to go potty and wash our hands.

Time for a snack!

After snack time, we'll do some more activities at the table and on the floor.

Then it will be time to say goodbye.
